George Washington, 27; Gallaudet, 0.

Last Saturday evening, at 3:30 o'clock, Referee Suter blew his whistle for the beginning of our annual game with Gallaudet, and at the end of two twenty-minute halves our boys came off the field triumphant, with the score twenty-seven to nothing in their favor.

The week previous Georgetown tackled the same team and in halves of longer duration succeeded in piling up only twenty-two points against them.

Let it not be thought that this comparison is set forth with the intention of placing particular emphasis on the scores, but it is for the purpose of letting our readers know the facts in the case, and allowing them to draw their own conclusions.

The weather conditions were ideal from the spectators' standpoint, and quite a good-sized crowd was on hand to welcome the team at its initial appearance on the home grounds, although cheering and enthusiasm of any sort were conspicuous by their absence.

Gallaudet kicked off to George Washington, and Beard, receiving the oval, returned it twenty yards before being downed. Sutton was sent around left tackle for four yards, but Beard was unable to gain through the opposite side, and "Steenie" punted fifty yards. Gallaudet was totally unable to gain, and our boys were soon in possession of the ball again. With Sommers Babcock and Beard advancing it, the pig-skin reached the Mutes' twenty-yard line.

Gallaudet's efforts again proved futile, and O'Donnel booted to Steenerson.

A minute later the forward pass was beautifully worked successfully by Gunning for a twenty-yard gain, and Babcock took it over for a touchdown. Captain Steenerson kicked a pretty goal. Score, G. W., six; Gallaudet, nothing.

The Mutes kicked off again, and, after being held for downs, a long spiral bounded over O'Donnel's head, and we secured the ball on Gallaudet's five-yard line. Immediately afterwards a quarter-back run scored the second touch-down, which was again converted into a goal. Score, G. W., twelve; Gallaudet, nothing. Time was called with the ball in our possession.

At the beginning of the second half, Gallaudet received the kick-off, were held for downs, the pass-back for a kick was fumbled, and the pig-skin fallen on by one of our warriors. Beard quickly went over for the third touch-down. Steenerson again kicked goal. Score, G. W., eighteen; Gallaudet, nothing.

Gallaudet kicked off again, and a series of dashes by Sutton, with long gains by Sommers and Gibson, soon brought the ball to within striking distance, but the Mutes again held. They immediately kicked, however, and the Buff and Blue march started again. Babcock was pushed over for the last touch-down. Opportunity for a goal was lost by a poor punt-out. Score, G. W., twenty-three; Gallaudet, nothing.

On the Mutes' fifth kick-off, Steenerson, receiving the ball, ran it back eighty yards in sensational style through a broken field, with Sommers interfering. A few moments later he dropped a pretty goal from the field for our final score. G. W., twenty-seven; Gallaudet, nothing.

Fall Convocation.

The first fall convocation was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Memorial Continental Hall. At this time those who finished their courses of study since the commencement in June were given diplomas.

The faculty and students formed in line at the University and marched to the hall. Music was furnished by the University orchestra. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. M. Ross Fishburn. The address was delivered by Prof. Carl Beck, M. D., an eminent surgeon of New York, but a native of Germany. He studied at the Universities of Heidelberg and Berlin, graduated at the University of Jena with the degree of Doctor of Medicine in 1879, coming to the United States in 1882. He is president of St. Mark's Hospital and has been Professor of Surgery in the New York Post-Graduate Medical School since 1890.

Charles A. Harrison, of Illinois, received the degree of Doctor of Medicine; Milton L. Goldsmith, of the District, and Daniel J. Mattingly, of Maryland, received the degree of Doctor of Pharmacy; Leonard W. Groomes, Maryland; Alfred B. Leet, District of Columbia; James C. Smith, Pennsylvania; Charles D. Voorhis, New Jersey, and Wilson E. Wilmot, New York, received the degree of Bachelor of Laws. James C. Brooke, of Virginia, received the degree of Master of Laws. Professor Veditz presented the debaters with the Honor medals which they won in the final debates last May.

Appointments.

Miss Ruth Cochran has been appointed to represent the social life of the University in these columns. Anyone wishing to get in notices of any social doings may confer with her.

Mr. John S. C. Brookes has been appointed Athletic Editor. Notices of games and anything else of interest in the athletic world may be given to him.

Needham Debating Society.

At its last meeting the Society took a personally conducted tour back to the Days of Ethelred. With Taylor's "Origin and Growth of the English Constitution" as a guide book the debaters probed the jury system from its very inception. Mr. Rowe, of New Jersey, found graft, corruption and bribery rampant, although another member, who probably had never heard of New Jersey or its nearby neighbors, Pennsylvania and Tammany Hall, repudiated the idea that such things would exist in a body of "twelve free born American Citizens." Dr. Hannis Taylor must have been there in spirit, so often did one hear of senior thegns, the witenagemote substructure and superstructure, etc.

The question was "Resolved that unanimity in jury verdicts should not be required." The able manner in which the debaters, and particularly the first year men, handled this subject showed careful research and left little to be said on either side. Since the judges were not convinced "beyond a reasonable doubt" that the system should be changed they decided to "stand pat" and awarded the decision to the negative and first and second honors to Messrs. Horner and Rowe, respectively, both being members of the class of 1909.

Mr. Rutherford submitted the report of the Committee on Arrangements for the reception of the incoming law class, and a resolution of thanks was accorded that committee for their good work.

The subject for next week is "Resolved that the President should be authorized to veto items in the Appropriation Bill." This question should give many would-be constitutional lawyers an opportunity to express their convictions as to the tendency of the executive branch of our Government to usurp the functions of the legislature.

Copies of The Mall may be secured from the Secretary's office, R. I. Moore, or E. C. Wilson.

Notes of the Gallaudet Game.

The team's playing, as a whole, was inferior to that displayed in the Lehigh game.

It detracts nothing from the other players when we say that Gunning is probably the hardest worker on the squad.

Capt. "Steenje's" all around playing was a feature. (At least that's what his lady friend in the grand stand, with whom he walked home, thought.)

Just to show that this column is not designed purely for the purpose of whispering sweet nothings about the players and inflating their vanities, a word must be said here about team-work. In years previous this has been the rock upon which our bark has split. Good individual players we have had in numbers, team-work seldom.

This is the chief respect in which our rivals across the creek excel us. It can not be impressed too strongly upon the men that football is a game in which individualism must be squelched. The team must be a machine, a quick-thinking, quick-acting machine it is true, but still a machine. And let us hope that Coach Crowell will succeed this year in arriving at the point where the would-be stars are not in evidence, but team work helping each other, every man in every play, has taken their place, for then, and not until then, will we be able to beat Georgetown.

When "Shorty" Sommers is in front of the man with the ball, little need to fear tacklers. Look at Capt. Ben's 80-yd. run.

Beard's injured rib has very nearly come around all right. He played a hard game Saturday.

The "Star" wanted to know why Vierra, an old and experienced man was taken out and Harraldson, "the lightest man on the squad," was put in his place. Good-bye to "Little" Harraldson's peace of mind after this.

Gibson got a chunk bitten out of his head but kept on playing. Hard luck, Gibbie! But you can get sick leave on that.

Enosinian.

A special meeting of the Enosinian Society was held Saturday, October 3. The schedule of debates for the next three meetings was adopted. Mr. Gates was elected to represent the Society on the Intercollegiate Debating Council. The regular meeting of the Society will be held Friday, October 19, at 8.30 o'clock, in the College Building.

Columbian Debating Society.

The Columbian Debating Society, at its first regular meeting last Friday evening, discussed the question, "Resolved, That the American Merchant Marine should be subsidized." Messrs. Couden, Agnew and Miller favoring a subsidy and Messrs. Riddleberger, Hendry and J. Morris opposing it. The discussion was instructive, entertaining and enthusiastic, and went into a thorough analysis of the question, considering the limited time allotted each speaker. The affirmative contended that since it is our policy to protect and thereby create industries by high tariff, we should contribute to the upbuilding of a shipping industry by means of a subsidy. The negative argued that a subsidy is a gift with no return therefor to the donors; and an artificial diversion of labor and capital from more productive and profitable industries into less profitable ones and that a subsidy is therefore undesirable.

Mr. Gates, the acting critic, made his report and predicted great achievements for the Columbian Society.

The judges, Messrs. Hutchins, Turner and Sidney Roche, awarded their decision in favor of the negative; first honors to Mr. Jackson Morris, and second honors to Mr. Agnew.

The discussion was then thrown open to the house for a short time, after which the men who had not yet become members were given an opportunity to join, several taking advantage thereof.

Enthusiastic and feeling remarks were made by members urging all members to put forth every effort this year to keep the Society meetings infused with animation, order and life.

Election of Officers.

The semi-annual election of officers of the Columbian Debating Society will be held Friday, October 19th, at 8 o'clock. It is very important that every member be present.

At Harvard athletics received a shake-up by the faculty announcement that no arrangements be made for any sort of games after December 1st. All intercollegiate athletic relations are to be thoroughly considered by the oversers of the corporation before any further steps are taken toward arranging games with other colleges, and it is possible that they may be forbidden.

The latchstring is always out at the Young Men's Christian Association.

But a special invitation is extended to the Men of Washington to visit the new Association House at 1736 G St., any day or night in October.

Columbian College.

At a meeting of the Sophomore Class, held Wednesday, October 10, in West Hall, the following officers were elected: President, Loren Call; Vice-President, Miss Blanche Stansbury; Secretary, Miss N. E. Besselièvre; Treasurer, Wm. E. Lamb. Outside of the sudden entrance through a window of a bottle of doubtful perfumery, and the fact that someone locked the doors on the assembly and neglected to return the key, the meeting passed off very quietly.

The following officers were elected at the Freshman meeting: President, John Field; Vice-President, Miss Corinne Brackett; Secretary, Miss Effie Baker; Treasurer, Mr. William Miller. Mr. David Baer was elected athletic advisor. November second was selected as the date for the class dance and Messrs. Smith, Clarke, and Gillespie and Misses Baker and Alexander will serve as a committee on arrangements.

Fresh. Meeting.

Thursday night was the date of the Freshman meeting and would have been the time of a general rough house had it not been for the timely arrival of the "cops."

It was with a good deal of excitement and buttoning on of old clothes that the Freshies prepared for the auspicious occasion. One callow youth arriving a little previous was kindly taken care of by three hospitable Sophomores who, fearing lest he should take cold standing about waiting for the meeting, warmed him up by giving him a little exercise, and having decorated him with rope left him to ruminate on whom he wanted for president while they went to receive other Freshmen.

And the Freshman would have had other thinking companions had not Dean Wilbur, solicitous as to the health of the Sophomores, advised them to go out and get some fresh air while he called the Freshman out.

When a sufficient number of Freshmen had arrived the meeting was held, and in spite of the fact that Johnson would persist in making puns and cutting remarks (imagining in his conceit that he was being very witty) the meeting was a success. Mr. Field, known as "Beef" (we don't know whether he is connected with the beef trust or not) was elected President, Miss Brackett was elected Vice-President, Mr. Miller, Treasurer (he looks honest), and Miss Baker, Secretary. A better corps of officers a class couldn't have. After some discussion on the part of those present as to the Freshman Dance, and the appointment of Committees the meeting adjourned.

It was at this point that some nice, red ripe tomatoes appeared on the scene, evidently hurled by the envious Sophomores who had been all this time standing shivering in the street. One tomato, finding some glass in its way, came right through sans ceremony and seemed very much cut up, probably over the cold reception it received, for it had no sooner made its way in than the doughty Freshmen, having no other business that they could think of became filled with compassion over the shivering Sophomores whom they saw warming their heels on the curbstone and sallied forth.

But there was no rush. No, there were three burly policemen standing about in a casual manner, and the students, both Sophs and Freshmen, being exceedingly modest, did not wish to show off before an audience, and scattered.

Some of the Freshmen were even noticed escorting girls home. Fie! Fie! But then they didn't know any better. So let's wish the Freshies all success.

Girls' Glee Club.

At the first meeting of the Glee Club, on Thursday, October 11th, Miss Bethune was unanimously elected as leader. It was decided to sing at the College Social, Dumbarton Ave. M. E. Church, on October 26th, and therefore there will be two rehearsals this week on Tuesday, October 16th, and Thursday, October 18th, at 1 o'clock sharp, West Hall.

Personal.

Miss Freebey, the former Librarian of the College, has resigned in order to engage in the practice of law. All who knew her will sincerely regret her loss to the school. During the time that she was with us she has completely reorganized the Library. Only those who remember the room as it was before her coming can fully appreciate the wonders she worked. Besides her regular practice, Miss Freebey will act as instructor in the Washington College of Law of this city, and is to deliver a series of lectures at the National Park Seminary. Her offices are in the Rochambeau.

North Carolina and Virginia will not meet in foot ball this year. Virginia's Thanksgiving game will be with the Carlisle Indians in Norfolk.

Anonymous Articles.

Again we call attention to the fact that we can not publish anything in the way of letters and communications that come to us without the name of the writer. If it is not desirable to publish the real name of the writer, he may sign a fictitious name along with his real name and that one will be used. Several communications have come to us without the name of the writer, and therefore can not be published.

Wednesday Assembly.

Every student who possibly can should make it a point to attend the weekly Assembly on Wednesdays. The President is making a special effort to make them particularly valuable, as well as interesting. Besides the University announcements and the most instructive short talks of the President there is the best music by some vocalist of more than ordinary ability and instrumental music by the orchestra of Professor Sol Minster, Director of Music at the Columbia Theatre. This is of more than ordinary excellence and will well repay an extra effort to attend. The students have such few opportunities to meet that this should be made an occasion for the general assembling of the students of all departments. Besides, for the benefit of students who perform on orchestral instruments and desire to make themselves proficient in ensemble work, Professor Sol Minster is forming a class to give practical instruction once a week, with the object of preparing students to take pay engagements. Come to the Assemblies and get in touch with these things.

You Can Do It.

In the past some students have even been disloyal enough to give as their excuse for not attending the games on our field, that the team played so poorly that the game was not worth the money. Even then the excuse is intolerable, for if a team ever needs the support of the students, it is when it is losing, then more than ever it should be encouraged, then it needs the sympathetic "rooting" of loyal students, that is the only way to put them on their feet again and start the team toward victory. But such cannot be the excuse this year, for we have a team that should arouse the enthusiasm of everyone in the University. We have a winning team. Yet when these same students are urged to attend the games, they plead that they cannot afford to lose the time from their lectures. At first this seems unanswerable, but a moment's thought will show that this is a very slight obstacle. There will be but four more games on the home grounds. The one with Georgetown will be on Thanksgiving; rumor has it that there will be no lectures at the time of the Virginia game; so that leaves only two games conflicting with lectures. While we do not advocate "cutting" of lectures as a practice, there is no one who cannot afford to miss two lectures during the year, and especially when it is to see his own team play. Think of the sacrifice that every member of the squad is making. Some of them were just as reluctant to miss lectures as anyone, but they felt that the University needed them and that they must make the sacrifice for her reputation. If they do this, surely no one can refuse to give two or three afternoons to the team. The professors will think none the less of a student for it, but on the contrary some of them would be glad to see that much interest displayed by some that seem to lack it entirely. It is wonderful what a difference it makes with the team to have a big bunch of their own students there to boost them along. Good rooting has often changed the tide for victory. Then, too, the management has gone to heavy expense this year to insure everything possible for a good team, so that your financial support is needed, too.

Make this sacrifice of two days and come to the games. Let's have the biggest crowd that has ever been seen on Van Ness Field. The next game on the home grounds will be Western Maryland, October 27.

Notice, Class Presidents of the Law Department.

Each class will see to it that a student is selected to meet with Dean Vance to discuss the feasibility of some plan whereby the students may co-operate with each other in depositing their case books in a common storehouse till the next class is ready for them, so that they may receive a reasonable price for them, and not have to sell them at such a sacrifice to the book stores. The object is to let the profit inure to the benefit of both the student who sells and the one who buys, and not allow the second-hand store to make a big profit in both buying and selling. Let each law class select a man at once.

Notice to Editors.

Department editors will please get their copy in by Monday at 6.30. It may be dropped in any one of the three HATCHET boxes in the College, Law, or Medical buildings. Each editor will be responsible for the news from his particular department and any delinquency in keeping it up to the standard will be charged to that one whose name appears in the Staff as representing that field. Readers may now know whom to blame for omissions to get things in or whom to praise for alertness in keeping up with all matters of interest.

An Opportunity.

All wishing to solicit subscriptions for The Hatchet on a liberal commission will see A. J. Russell, Manager, at once. See him at the Law Building, 'phone or write him at the University Club.

A chance to make easy money.

Belasco—"Before and After."

The greatest farce and the finest cast in ten years is what Robert Hunter claims for Leo Ditrichstein's latest laughter play "Before and After," which will return to the Belasco Theater, for a week, beginning Monday, October 22.

Columbia—Dustin Farnum in "The Virginian."

"The Virginian," the dramatization of Owen Wister's splendid novel of Western life, will be presented at the Columbia Theater next week with Dustin Farnum at the head of the Kirke La Shelle players. Few dramas of the American plains life give such a realistic and thrilling picture as that presented by this charming stage version of Wister's widely read novel.

National—Elsie Janis in "The Vanderbilt Cup."

The attraction at the New National Theater next week will be "The Vanderbilt Cup," with little Elsie Janis, the popular seventeen-year-old star as the bright particular feature. This play is one of the most novel ever presented to the American theatergoer, having as its sole reason for existence the automobile.

Chase's—"The King of Firearms."

Next week at Chase's commencing at the Monday matinee, October 22d, the brilliant program of polite vaudeville novelties will be headed by Col. Gaston Bordeverry, "The King of Firearms," who astonished America by his remarkable feats of marksmanship, while appearing for the first time in this country last season at the great Hippodrome in New York City.

Academy—"The Burglar's Daughter."

One of the best plays of the season will be seen at the Academy on Monday night, October 22. It is "The Burglar's Daughter," a melodrama by Owen Davis, who has been the successful author of many popular dramas.

Majestic—"The Black Crook."

"The Black Crook," the fine old spectacle that attracted our grandfathers to Niblo's Garden, New York, upwards of forty years ago, will be the offering at the Majestic week of October 22.

Through the beneficence of George W. Weld, Harvard, '60, who died last year, Harvard is soon to have a new Weld boat house, which will stand on the site of the old house.

The University Congress.

In a very interesting session of the University Congress last Saturday evening the question of the municipal ownership of public franchises was discussed. The bill was advocated by Mr. House, of Maryland, and Mr. Spinks, of Mississippi, while Mr. Williams, of Maryland, and Mr. Morris, of Kentucky, opposed its passage.

The discussion was participated in by many of the members, and when the bill was put upon its final passage it was lost by a narrow margin.

Next session is expected to be an unusually warm one as the question for discussion is a resolution which states that it is for the best interests of the people for W. R. Hearst to be elected Governor of New York.

A letter was received from Professor Veditz relative to arranging for a date for a lecture on "Orators and Oratory," by Professor Williams, of Maryland Agricultural College.

The Speaker appointed Mr. Jackson Morris, of Kentucky, to confer with Professor Veditz and the representatives of the debating societies as to fixing the date for Professor Williams' lecture.

A meeting of the Inter-collegiate Debating Council having been called to meet on Wednesday evening, the Congress elected Mr. Jackson Morris as its member of the Council, which is composed of one member each from Faculty, Alumni Association, University Congress, Columbian, Needham and Enosinian Debating Societies.

Every member of the Congress is urged to be present next meeting, and the students of the University and their friends are invited. Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock, in University Hall.

'Varsity Scrubs o, Tech 6.

The 'Varsity scrubs, who have been organized this season for the first time were defeated last Friday by Technical High School in a hard fought game by the score of 6-0. In view of the fact that the men necessarily change about so much and development of team work has been up to the present time impracticable, the contest was a very creditable one. Individually our men were far superior to their opponents, but lack of concerted action was clearly apparent. As it was, however, the score would have been 0-0 but for a fumbled punt which allowed Tech to score the only touch-down of the game.

The Scrubs received the kick-off at the start, and ran the ball back some distance before being held for down. Finally, however, they were forced to punt and the High School boys took a try at the offensive. In their turn they were unable to gain, and this program was continued throughout the first half, neither side getting within striking distance except in one instance, when Ruiz, the Scrub right half, narrowly missed a goal from field.

In the second half, Tech resorted to a punting game, and were signally successful, the Buff and Blue appearing pitifully weak in handling Thrall's high spirals. Finally, on a punt our five-yard line Patterson fumbled, and a big Tech tackle secured the oval and carried it over for a touch-down. The game ended with the ball in their possession.

The Scrubs gained fully three times as much ground as their adversaries, and at times showed flashes of form which with practice should make them far superior to any of the local school teams. The best work for the High School was done by, Thrall and Thile, while Gable, Whiting, Monroe, Paddock and Sterrett showed up well for the Scrubs. The Scrubs lined up as follows:

For a Second Team.

With a regular scrub team, organized and knowing that even if they don't succeed in making the 'Varsity they will do nearly as well on the second team, men who have hitherto been fearful as to their ability to play 'Varsity foot ball should no longer hesitate to come out, and report any evening to Coach Crowell or Captain Brookes at Van Ness Park immediately. All candidates will be fitted out and given a trial, and as a light and pleasureable scrimmage is indulged in with the 'Varsity every evening, no man need fear that his light will be hidden under a bushel by playing with the scrubs. The men who "show" on the 2d team will be given a trial on the 'Varsity. And at the end of the season the men will be awarded some letter or monogram, which only regular players on the 2d team will be allowed to wear. A schedule of games with the local high schools and an out of town trip is being prepared by Manager Biddle. So come out at once, and show what you can do.

AMONG THE FRATERNITIES.

Delta Tau Delta.

Gamma Eta Chapter of Delta Tau Delta inaugurated its season of "Ladies' Nights" by a very successful dance given at the Chapter House last Saturday evening. The crowd was just about the right size and everyone seemed to have a good time. During the course of the evening several enjoyable solos were rendered by Miss Bethune and Mr. Burrell, which contributed very much to the success of the entertainment.

On Tuesday, October sixteenth, the Delta Tau Delta was the scene of another of the enjoyable evenings for which it has such a reputation. A large number of visitors were on hand, and all confessed to having had a very pleasant evening.

Phi Sigma Kappa.

On the evening of Saturday, October 13, Phi Sigma Kappa held its second jubilant, joyful, jolly smoker of the school year at their house, 2002 G Street, N. W. All present called it a great, glaring, glittering, glorious success.

Among the invited guests were Dean Vance, of the Law School, and the Rev. Dr. Easton, of this city. Both made very appropriate addresses. Dean Vance spoke on the essentials of a good fraternity and on the real and deeper meaning of certain fraternity customs which are commonly misunderstood and derided. The students present, most of whom have listened to the Dean in the classroom and at his public addresses, unanimously agreed that they had never heard him to better advantage.

It is reported that everybody got home before the cars stopped which is doing fairly well. Don't you think so?

Pi Beta Phi.

A jolly little chafing-dish luncheon was given by the girls of Pi Beta Phi on Tuesday, October 9th. After luncheon the hostesses and guests enjoyed a short dance in West Hall.

The girls of Pi Beta Phi gave a beautiful dance at Hammond Court, the home of Miss Birch, on Friday, October 12th. The rooms were decorated with George Washington and fraternity pennants and many dark red carnations. Those present were the Misses Cochran, Birch, Bethune, McCoy, Taylor, McCleary, Evans, McLeod, Farrington, R. G. Cochran, Brackett, Baker and Denham; and Messrs. Brandenburg, Call, Johnson, J. McCoy, F. McCoy, Melby, Atkinson, Albert, Gow and Howland.

Room 26 was the scene of a most enjoyable luncheon given by the girls of Pi Beta Phi on Monday, October 15th. The room was beautifully decorated with the fraternity colors, wine red and light blue, and with the fraternity flowers, red carnations. Among the guests were Dean Wilbur and Mrs. Wilbur, Miss Cabell, Miss Brackett, Miss Wilson, Miss Denham, Miss Albert and the Messrs. Johnson, Schoenfeld, Turkenton, Wright, Wilhelm, Atkinson, Miller, Baer, Schreiber, Gow, Albert, Brandenburg and Howland.

Kappa Sigma extended the courtesy of their house to visiting brethren who were members of the United Spanish War Veterans.

Kappa Alpha held another smoker in honor of the Freshmen Classes of the University on Tuesday evening, October 9, 1906.

Phi Sigma Kappa held a very entertaining smoker at their house on Saturday, October 13th.

Kappa Sigma Pi entertained several members of the Freshmen class at a smoker on Saturday evening, October 13th.

Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Kappa Medical Fraternity opened the school year Saturday evening with an informal smoker at their new house. They have taken up their abode in the large cheerful residence formerly occupied by Ambassador Leishman, 19th and M. The house has elicited the praise of all who have seen it, and the A. K. K.'s are glad to be able to announce that George Washington University has another fraternity house well equipped for social functions and the uses of students.

Y. M. C. A.

The George Washington Y. M. C. A. Club is planning an active fall and winter campaign. Special stress will be laid on Bible and mission study. All men in the University are eligible for membership. The present officers of the Society are: Mr. W. C. Van Vleck, President; Mr. E. C. Powers, Vice-President and Secretary of Religious Work; Glen R. Lawrence, Secretary and Treasurer; W. M. Sutton, Chairman of Membership Committee.

Graduate Studies.

Dr. Charles E. Munroe, the Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, has approved for admission the following applicants: Miss Margaret Agnes McMahon, Mr. Angus McDonald Crawford, Mr. Daniel M. Walsh, Mr. Delos H. Smith, Mr. August Friedrich Wilhelm Edler, Mr. Walter M. Gilbert, Mr. Walter C. Taber, Mr. George N. Coffrey, Mr. Edward H. Goodnow, Mr. Edwin Smith, Jr., and H. W. Houghton. These candidates for higher degrees ought to feel very proud that they have fulfilled all the requirements for entering upon such advanced work, which affords such wide fields for researches. Nothing is more interesting than the working out of original ideas which will go down in History of Science as the solutions of the most important scientific questions of the day.

Emerson Institute Scholarship.

The George Washington University offers to the students of Emerson Institute a scholarship of fifty dollars, to be credited on tuition fees, good in any department of the University that admits students on the school certificate. The holder of this scholarship must be a graduate of Emerson Institute in either the Classical Preparatory or Scientific Preparatory work of the School, the scholarship to be good only the year immediately following graduation at Emerson Institute. The holder of the scholarship must enter the University at the beginning of the fall session with the intention of remaining the full year. In addition to the holder of the scholarship there must be at least three new students enter the University from Emerson Institute at the beginning of the session of the same year in which the holder of this scholarship enters. In awarding this scholarship attention will be paid to the class standing, examination record and deportment of the student.

Emerson Institute likewise offers to its students a scholarship of $50. in The George Washington University.

Dental.

At a recent meeting of the Demonstrators in the Dental Department to elect a representative of that body to attend the Faculty meetings Dr. Chas L. Bovee was elected to that place.

Dr. Bovee will have charge of the junior class in their laboratory work again this year, meeting Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Things are beginning to liven up in the Dental Infirmary. Already quite a large number of patients are presenting themselves for treatment, and the junior men are attending regularly afternoons in good numbers.

Dr. Bassett in charge will have associated with him again this year Drs. Bovee, Trivett, Wilkerson and Pollock.

College News.

The football team of the Kentucky Institute for the Blind, composed of five totally blind players and six of imperfect vision, played the Manual High School eleven in Louisville last Saturday. Neither side scored. The ball was passed on the word "pass."

Hampden-Sidney scored on Virginia last Saturday on Virginia's attempt to use the forward pass, by seizing the ball in the air and sprinting for a touch-down.

"Hurry-up" Yost came over from Michigan last Saturday to see the Swarthmore-Pennsylvania game to get a line on the playing of the team which his eleven meets later. He thought Pennsylvania should have used the forward pass more. Michigan plays Vanderbilt University in Ann Harbor on November 3.

Princeton came down to Annapolis Saturday expecting to have an easy time but were surprised to meet with such stubborn resistance that only one touchdown was made and that near the end of the last half, the score being 5 to 0.

Swarthmore, George Washington's opponent Saturday, defeated The University of Pennsylvania last Saturday by a score of 4 to 0. Quarter back O'Brien made a drop kick from the 30-yard line.

Medical.

There is a general indignation among the Seniors owing to the lack of courtesy shown them by the Juniors.

The custom of allowing the Seniors to occupy the three front rows of seats has been handed down from class to class. "As ye would, etc."

Did you see the study in faces as the members of the several classes of medical and dental schools gathered in the student's room to see their final returns from the fall examinations?

"Am I happy? Yes."

"I'm proud of you," were accompanied by perfect glee. There were those who met their Waterloo, but without flinching, and the determination in their faces meant "Win next time!"

The first section of Seniors have been assigned to work at the University Hospital.

The clinical work is very attractive and beneficial to the medical man. Two students have charge of each ward patient as he comes to the Hospital. They follow the course of the illness, making all chemical and clinical examinations, and prescribe the necessary medicines—all done under the direction of an Intern. If operation is necessary, they accompany patient to operating room, assist in the operation and care for patient until he is dismissed from the Hospital.

At the foot ball game at Van Ness Park last Saturday, scarcely a medical student could be seen.

Support the team by watching it play, and by "rooting," too. The team is a strong one, well picked, well trained, and under good management. Let us all be at the Park when we play Western Maryland.

The clerk in the office of the Medical Department has resigned and his place is to be taken by a lady.

After a fitting eulogy upon our grand old Dr. J. Ford Thompson, Dr. Carr gave his opening lecture on "Surgery" to the Junior Class.

They are glad to meet Dr. Carr, although they have not forgotten their encounter "way back yonder in Physiology."

The Juniors have a number of hard subjects this year, but have considerably more time to prepare their work than the classes of former years—they are congratulating themselves on that.

They hold their class meeting next Saturday night.

Dr. Charles H. Clark has been appointed Professor of Nervous Diseases. He is chief medical officer in the Government Hospital for Insane. The students are to be afforded excellent facilities for clinical instruction.

He has introduced in his lectures the "case system." A case is given for diagnosis at each lecture and a report required at the next.

The class is much pleased with the method of instruction.

There will be some lively class meetings in the near future.

Don't let prejudice cast your ballot. Vote for a man—one you can trust.
